

Travel with the Ackland

PHILADELPHIA

October 22–25, 2020

Join the Ackland Art Museum on an exclusive behind-the-scenes cultural tour of Philadelphia with special guest Dr. Elizabeth Broun, Director Emerita of the Smithsonian American Art Museum and Renwick Gallery. She and Katie Ziglar, Director of the Ackland, will guide us through the best art museums, private collections, public art, and galleries that Philly has to offer, including:

- Philadelphia Museum of Art
- Barnes Foundation
- Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts
- Woodmere Art Museum
- Private Collections and Historical Sites

Throughout the trip, enjoy curated and intimate dining experiences at some of the city's best restaurants, and stay at The Rittenhouse, one of the most historic and luxurious hotels in all of Philadelphia. We'll dine at Stir Restaurant, the only Frank Gehry–designed restaurant in the Northeast. We'll also marvel at the Dream Garden, a breathtaking mural composed of hundreds of thousands of irreplaceable glass tesserae in more than 260 color tones, the only collaboration between Maxfield Parrish and glass master Louis Comfort Tiffany.

SPACE IS LIMITED!

Book as soon as possible to ensure your spot.

We look forward to traveling with you!

ABOUT ELIZABETH BROUN

Elizabeth “Betsy” Broun led the Smithsonian American Art Museum and its branch museum, the Renwick Gallery, from 1989 through 2016. Under her leadership, the Museum developed robust travelling exhibitions, long distance educational programming, and advances in digital media and web-based resources. We are thrilled to have Dr. Broun, one of the foremost American art experts in the nation, serve as our personal tour guide.

ABOUT KATIE ZIGLAR

Katie Ziglar is the Director of the Ackland Art Museum at UNC-Chapel Hill. Prior to joining the Ackland in 2016, Katie spent many years contributing substantially to the successful management of other visual arts organizations including the Smithsonian American Art Museum, the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute, the National Gallery of Art, and most recently Smithsonian’s Freer|Sackler Galleries. Katie received a B.A. in history from UNC-Chapel Hill, where she was a John Motley Morehead scholar, and an M.A. in Islamic art and architecture from American University in Cairo.
