

Taking a New Perspective

Select a photograph from the Ackland's collection or choose a photograph or image from a magazine, newspaper, or online article.

Write from the perspective of a person or object within the image (or possibly outside of the frame). Describe what you see, both analyzing the image and using your imagination. What is happening? What are you experiencing through your senses? What happens next?